

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Ted Trakas

As of the writing of this message (mid-June), the elections in District 8 are finally over. We have a winner. Our sincere hope and expectations are that Diane Cibrian will make as strong and effective a District 8 Councilperson as she did a candidate.

So now that the election is decided, who did I vote for, in case you are interested? Diane, both times. My reasoning was: (1) she had no apparent ties or debts to the developer community, which frankly the association is sometimes at odds with; (2) she had not done anything negative in her past that I had direct knowledge of; and (3), she obviously was going to win and it is nice being on the winning side unless there is some kind of over-riding principle at stake. (Also I know, and am at liberty to report, that the other registered voter at my residence, Mrs. T, voted likewise.) So I feel, as do a majority of you, that Diane owes us. But if she does not make good in her term, then . . . I will let you know that too every two months.

Final thanks go to Art Hall and his staff. For our association, it is the zoning cases that count. Art and his staff have always been supportive.
